CALLS FOR SERVICE

Breaking and Entering (2911.13)

PO B. Jones was dispatched to CheckSmart for a report of an intrusion alarm on the rear of the business. Upon arrival, a small hole was found in the rear wall of the business with bits of broken concrete on the ground. It appeared that someone had used some sort of hammer to smash through approximately 6 cinder blocks, creating a small space leading into the rear of the business. More cinder block was found over a retaining wall in the tree line behind the business. This lead officers to believe that the individual responsible was working on breaking through the wall little by little for the past few days and hiding the debris after each attempt.

Dispatch was advised to have a key holder respond to unsecured the business so officers could check the inside. After having no luck with a key holder, Sgt Pertocelli asked who was listed in Pamet as key holders for that business. The female manager stated that she reviewed camera footage online and stated a skinny male who was believed not to be wearing gloves entered the building at approximately 0555hrs. After entering the male looked around and exited the same way he came in.

Attempted Robbery (2923.02)

On 08/04/2014 @ 2144 hours, officers were called to W. Galbraith Rd to see a victim, regarding an attempt street robbery that had just occurred. Upon arrival, officers were met by the victim, who advised that 3 male black juveniles had attempted to steal a bag that he was carrying while walking home. More specifically, the victim stated that he had just left the McShell, after purchasing some cigarettes and a couple of other items. While walking home from McShell, the victim heard the 3 male juveniles walking up behind him. He then advised that one of the male juveniles attempted to grab the grocery bag out of his hand but, he was able to hold on to it.

The victim then advised officers that when the juvenile was attempting to take his bag, he turned around quickly and admitted to striking the juvenile in the leg with his walking cane. After striking the juvenile with the walking cane, all 3 juveniles fled the scene and were last seen running across the street and into the parking lot of Frisch's.

Theft (2913.02)

PO Henn was dispatched for a theft report. Upon arrival, he was met by the victim who states an unknown person or persons removed two bicycles from her driveway without her knowledge or consent. The victim states the bicycles were chained together and covered with a plastic tarp at the bottom of the driveway near the garage door. The previous day, the victim's sister observed two male subjects around the property that appeared to be looking at the bicycles. The sister did not observe the subjects take the bicycles, however she believed their behavior was suspicious. Police were not called at that time.

The numbers for the bicycles are reported in the incident report matching the department, she would be notified for possible identification.

the victim was unable to provide serial numbers for the bicycles; however she stated the bicycles are very recognizable. She was advised a report would be on file with our department to document the incident. She was further advised if bicycles matching the description given are recovered by our department, she would be notified for possible identification.

Breaking and Entering (2911.13)

Officers were dispatched to the area of Centerridge Ave. to investigate noise coming from the basement of a vacant house with a suspicious SUV parked out front, with the passenger's side door left open.

Upon arrival Officers found the SUV parked on Centerridge, near the vacant house. The engine was warm and the passenger's side door was open. There was also tools (screw drivers and cable wires and cutters) located in the back seat of the vehicle. Officers then went to the side door and could hear people inside. They observed the side door had been forced open.

Sgt. Schrand (standing near the front window) then observed one subject run through the house from the basement and watched him jump out the side window. Sgt. Schrand ordered him to stop and gave chase. Sgt. Schrand attempted to taser the subject as he was running away, however the taser did not take effect. Sgt. Schrand then heard Officer Brown yelling commands and someone else screaming back. Sgt. Schrand then returned to the front of the house to find another suspect laying in the neighbor's yard with a taser probe in his buttocks and screaming. Officer Brown was giving him verbal commands to remain on the ground and still, then to hands behind his back. Sgt. Schrand Officer Brown in taking the suspect into put his assisted custody.

Criminal Damaging (2909.06)

On 08/10/2014 @ 1539 hours, officers were dispatched to Simpson Ave. regarding trouble between a boyfriend and girlfriend. While enroute, officers were advised that the male half was in possession of a knife and that he had possibly slashed the tires on the girlfriend's vehicle.

Upon arrival, officers spoke with the female complainant, who stated that her boyfriend had taken her vehicle earlier in the day while she was sleeping. When she awoke from her nap, she looked outside and noticed her vehicle was missing. A short while later, her boyfriend returned to the residence with her vehicle. She continued by stating that an argument ensued between both of them with her yelling at him for taking her vehicle without her permission.

During the argument, he stated that he wanted the tires off her vehicle as well as the alternator since he had replaced all of those items at one point in time. When she told him that he could not have those items and that all she wanted him to do was leave her residence, it was reported that he walked outside, brandished a knife and then began slashing two (2) of the tires on the complainant's vehicle, causing both tires to lose air and subsequently become flat.

The complainant stated that she did not want to file charges at this time against her boyfriend and that as long as he stayed away from her residence; she merely wanted the incident documented.

The 2 tires slashed during the incident were both the front and rear driver side.

Assault (2903.13)

Officers were called to Walgreen's. for a person assaulted. Upon arrival officers were met by store employees who advised a f/b was in the bathroom stating she had been maced. Officers responded to the women's restroom and located victim. She advised that while attempting to drop off her grandson to his father's house she encountered suspect. According to the victim, she sent her grandson to the door. The suspect answered the door and told the boy "your father is not here and you don't need to come back here again!" The boy then ran back to his grandmother's car and was very upset.

The victim stated she went to the house to find out what was going on and was confronted by suspect. An argument ensued, leading the suspect to go in the house and retrieve "MACE." The suspect was cussing and decided to spray the victim in the face with the mace product. The victim then stumbled back, tipping over a grill as she attempting to exit the area. She then went to her vehicle and left the scene, making her way over to Walgreens to contact police and flush her eyes out. The victim stated there is an ongoing issue with suspect not wanting the son to have contact with his father. The victim was treated for her injury via squad and Walgreens staff members. She was advised not to return to the property pending this investigation.

Forgery (2913.31)

On 8/25/14 at 3:10 pm, PO Smith was dispatched to Fifth Third Bank to investigate a female currently at the teller, attempting to cash a fraudulent check. Upon arrival, officers made contact with the Manager, who stated that he verified from Monarch Construction Company, payer of the check, that it was fraudulent. At that time, officers made contact with the suspect, who was waiting at the teller. She was escorted by PO's Smith and Six to PO Smith's cruiser, and detained for questioning. PO Smith asked the suspect who gave her the check, and she stated that it was her paycheck for a prescription company. He then asked her the name of the person who gave her the check, and she stated, "Jerry." He then asked her if "Jerry" had a last name, and she stated that she didn't know. The suspect also could not provide the number of hours she worked, or the location of the company. At that time, she was placed under arrest for forgery, ORC 2913.31a3, advised her Miranda Rights, and transported back to NCH PD for booking.

While on station, the defendant was asked if she wanted to answer questions in regards to the incident. The defendant waived her right to have an attorney present during questioning, and advised officers that she did not work, nor was she affiliated with Monarch Construction, and her friend gave her the fraudulent check. The defendant also advised that the arrangement between her and her friend was to cash the check, payable for $907.02, give her friend $707.02, and the defendant was to keep $200. The defendant also stated that her friend does not work for Monarch Construction. The defendant was transported to the Hamilton County Justice Center.

Criminal Mischief (2909.07)

On 08/28/2014 at 1811 hours, officers were dispatched to the Clean Getaway Cleaners for a criminal damaging in progress. When officers arrived on scene, they were met by the victim, who stated that his ex-girlfriend had thrown a cup with soda in it, onto the hood of his vehicle while it was parked in the parking lot of the business listed. Officers noticed that the cup was still on the hood of his vehicle and that it had not caused any physical damage to the victim's vehicle.

The victim stated that this incident was not the first time she has thrown something at or onto his vehicle. She has previously thrown eggs at his vehicle while it was parked in Springfield Township. The victim requested a report be kept on file.

Domestic Violence (2919.25)

On 08/29/14 at 1000 hrs., the victim came in to the station to report an assault by her boyfriend. As she came in, PO Brown observed that her shirt was torn, she had blood spots on her shirt, she had visible abrasions on her neck, forehead, arms and back. PO Brown asked her what had happened. She advised that they had an argument over the fact that she went out without him the night prior. This argument escalated into a physical altercation. He had punched her several times in the back, pulled her hair and had drug her up the stairs to second floor by her hair. He had slammed her head into the floor around the neck, choking her. She said that he left the room and she then left the house and advised him the authorities.

He slammed her head into the floor around the neck, choking her. She said that he left the room and she then left the house and advised him the authorities.

PO Brown filled out the appropriate forms and she filled out an affidavit and a witness statement. PO Brown then advised her of the process of a domestic violence charge. She said that she was going to stay with a relative for the time being. A warrant was issued for the suspect.
